MAFAC Presents an Edwardian Tea & Tour

MARSHALL, Minn., November 13, 2013 – An Edwardian Tea and Tour, presented by Marshall Area Fine Arts Council, will be held on Saturday, December 14, 2013. The event will take place at Mark Goodenow’s Victorian home at 601 West Lyon Street in Marshall.

Previously held at the MAFAC Arts Center, this year marks the first time the event will be held at the Goodenow home. The home will be open for people to come and go from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. with tours held at 1:30, 2:30, and 3:30 p.m.

The truly authentic Victorian home will be decked out in the finest Christmas décor. Three floors of the house will be on tour, and one of the many memorable parts will be the children’s toys on display on the third floor. Spode Christmas dishes and sterling silver flatware will be used for the tea.

This seasonal event has been held before, but hasn’t occurred in the past few years. According to Bev Kenyon, co-chair of the event, “people really missed and asked about it.”

This year, you can look forward to fun stories about the home’s history and the people who have lived there.

“It will be a most enjoyable afternoon with some surprises as well,” said Kenyon.

Tickets are $15 per person and must be purchased in advance. Tickets are for sale at MAFAC, HyVee, and County Fair.

There is also an opportunity to win door prizes. To enter the door prize drawing, the information on the back of the ticket must be filled out and returned to MAFAC by 1 p.m. on Thursday, December 19.
